Welcome to Rufus House

Situated on the edge of Lyndhurst village, the capital of the New Forest, this grand Victorian house was built in 1876 as a country residence. Retaining many of its original features, Rufus House is the perfect location to enjoy a relaxing break in peaceful surroundings overlooking views of the forest. Golf courses, equestrian centre, spa and swimming pools are all short distance from Rufus House.

With acres of exceptional woodland and open heaths as our front garden, ideally situated for all New Forest attractions and just a short drive to the South Coast with its many beautiful beaches and seaside villages, Rufus House is an ideal touring base to explore the New Forest and surrounding areas of natural beauty all year around.

Just a short stroll from Rufus House is the centre of Lyndhurst village, where you will find the New Forest Museum, Visitor Information Centre and an excellent variety of shops, cafes and restaurants.

Please note that Rufus House is Non-Smoking throughout
